

UNIVERSITY

ELECTIVES

		Leader	Max
Basketball	Let's hoop it up!	Caleb Foust	30
Board Games	Play a variety of board games, indoors!	Trish Boone	30
Canvas and Cookies	Hot outside? Come indoors and paint to music and cookies! Show your artistic side and paint a canvas (provided) or bring your own item (ex: shoes, a t-shirt, canvas bag, etc.) to paint!	Sophie Harris	25
Capoeira	In this music and movement course we will explore this playful Brazilian martial art and practice its elements of dance, gymnastics, and kicks. We will also sing and play instruments. Anyone can do this, you won't want to miss out on the fun! Be sure to wear athletic clothing. I need a large room with lots of floor space- indoors. My other chaperone, Jon Coole, will be my second adult.	Jessa Warner	30
Crafts	We will work on many Pinterest inspired crafts!	Elizabeth Maye	30
Finding our Rhythm through Dance	We will learn how to find an awareness of our body in space, explore that space to sounds of nature, rhythm and music.	Carol Ann Good	15
Flag Football	Flag Football	Mike Fuller	24
GaGa Ball	What has 8 sides, one bouncy ball, and needs no prior experience to play? GaGa Ball! This fun game also doesn't require a ton of physical skill or energy, but it is a ton of fun. (disclaimer: Lady Gaga has no official affiliation with this elective)	Jonah Gilkeson	20
Get Fit	This class is for beginners or low level exercise regiments. We will be exercising outside using our bodies and other natural elements to do our workout.	Melanie Henderson
Girls Only Sleepover	Join us for some fun together - bring your blanket and pillow - movies, snacks and a craft.	Shealy Long	25
Handbells	Youth will learn some handbell pieces. No experience required (but the ability to read music is very helpful!)	Laura Bratton	12
Jewelry Making	Come join us for jewelry making, key chains, bookmarks, earrings and so many more possibilities.	Lia Hearn	25
Kickball	Baseball with Feet	Brittany Whitaker	24

Lacrosse	Not for the faint of heart! You need to bring your own gear, sunscreen, and water bottle! Bring an extra stick if you can.	Jamie Blassingame	25
Sign Language	Come and develop some of your own abilities to communicate with sign language. Students do not need prior sign language training to be a part of this elective. One group project will be to learn how to sign one of our week's worship songs so that it can be shared in the context of Unidiversity worship.	Alyssa Wilson	12
Soccer	GOOOOOOOOOOOOAL!!!!	Victor Tice	24
Strategy Card Games	In this elective we'll learn and play card games that require thinking, strategy, and sometimes teamwork. Games like Spades, Hearts, Bridge, Rummy, and maybe even a few dice games like Yahtzee. The fun never stops once you get your brain involved!	Beth Dusin
Tailgate Games	Outdoor Games for Indoor People - We'll play games like Bags (aka Cornhole), Washers, Ladder Golf, Four Square, Grounders, and maybe some good outdoor board games like Quelf. No amount of perspiration will be expected	Charles Smith
The Jam Elective	Bring your instrument! Let's learn some tunes together and participate in some celebrations and worship!	Moses Suruma	15
Tie-Dye	This is a leisurely elective with tie-dye, hopefully in the shade! Youth must bring a t-shirt or some other personal items to tie-dye (recommended to bring 2 items/person).	Cayla Slaughter	25
Ultimate Frisbee	Ultimate Frisbee	Jordan Groves	30
Volleyball	Competitive Beach volleyball	Ben Ondrak	20
Unidiversity Video Elective	Help in the filming and putting together of the Unidiversity end of camp Highlight video. You must have some video recording experience. For high school students who do have some experience in recording video and are truly interested in getting into video production.	Cliff Williams/ Millege Austin	6
