SEMINARS TUESDAY/WEDNESDAY

		Leader	Age Level	Max
A Faith You Don't Graduate From	Discover ways to deepen and explore your faith in college	Britany Whittaker	High School	20
Bible on Broadway	We will explore how the Spirit can be found through musical theater. No "talent" required, and no performances will be done (unless we spontaneously burst into song)!	James Granade	Both
Blessing: Noun or Verb?	Which form of the word "blessing" is most evident in your daily life? Let's discuss and explore what you can do to ensure "a blessed day." Includes an opportunity to write your own blessing.	Nancy McWhorter	Both
Contemplative Walking	Learn to pray in any situation or circumstance. Whether you are in church or just walking to and from class each day, this seminar will broaden your understanding of prayer and expand your ability to communicate with God.	Nancy Cothran	High School	25
Context is Key	The Bible and its stories are filled with rich layers that lose their bite when we forget the context for which they were written and intended. We'll look at a couple key stories and characters and discuss the deeper side of the stories that might have been lost in translation	Caleb Foust	Both
Faith and Friends	In invitation to a conversational approach to faith in community	Mike Wise	Both
Fathoming Film	Join us as we dive into a sea of cinema and fathom films for glimpses of God! We'll look at different movie clips and try to deepen our understanding of who God is calling us to be!	Steve Cothran	Both	45
Global Perspectives on Scriptures	Interpretations of the Bible can be as diverse as the number of cultures and ethnic groups in our world. In this seminar, we will be looking at various passages of scripture, and then hearing brief summaries of what they mean from different cultures and backgrounds from around the world. We will learn how differences happen, how we engage different ideas, and how to confidently share and develop an informed understanding of scripture.	Joshua Owens	Both
Harry Potter and Dilemma of Destiny	Hallows or Horcruxes? Gryffindor or Slytherin? Is our fate already written? Or do we choose our path? Is Harry the Chosen One? Or is he the decider of his destiny? Buckle up for a deep dive into Harry Potter as we talk about fate, free will, and the consequences of our choices.	Beth Dusin	Both
Juggling Faith	Learn to juggle while discussing what it means to exercise faith	Ben Ondrak	Both
Music To Rock Your Soul	ROCK YOUR SOUL – Warning: If you do not enjoy watching cool music videos, stop reading. But If you do ... Join us as we seek to follow the apostle Paul's instruction to "be filled with the Spirit, speaking to one another with psalms, hymns, and songs from the Spirit. Sing and make music from your heart to the Lord" (Eph 5:19). We desire to sing loud and proud with rock, rap, pop and other contemporary music. Wait, can we do that? I thought Christian music was supposed to be boring.	Andrew Holt	Both
Mysterious Worship - How Do We Craft Worship Experiences to Encounter a God of Mystery	We will be studying and writing music and liturgy for worship.	John Callaway	Both	30

Silence, Meditation &amp; Prayer	We will hear perspectives from within Christianity and other faiths about Silence, Meditation, & Prayer. We will watch short videos, share with one another, and practice these disciplines.	Lee Gray	Both
Sports in the Christ-Light	We will be taking a faith guided approach on how we can best glorify God through the sports that we play. We will be discussing some of the most prevalent problems that high school, collegiate, and professional athletes face during their careers and how we can best handle those problems in a Christ like manner.	Tanner Brown & Allan Smith	Both
Taming the Beast Within: Tips for Managing Anxious Thoughts	We'll talk about the sources of anxiety and worrisome thoughts and learn some techniques for managing them. We'll practice some techniques together and leave with our favorites added to our "toolboxes."	Marjorie Avent	Both
The Psalms as a Soundtrack for Your Life	It's right there in the middle of your Bible: 150 different songs, each conveying a wide range of emotions and desires. We've lost the music and the context, but the honesty and power of these ancient words still resonate today. In this seminar we'll explore the peaceful and the painful psalms, and consider what it might mean to pray a psalm daily.	Casey Callahan	Both
The Road Back to You: An Enneagram Journey for College-aged Students	"God created you to be a unique image of God in the world. Each of you reflects God's image in one of nine different ways. But there is a catch... the way you reflect this image is not the authentic you. Join other college-aged students on a weeklong journey of self-discovery as we peel back the layers and find who God made us to be."	Will Raybon
There's Something Happening Here	There's Something Happening Here: Jesus' Proactive Good News in a World of Intolerance, Xenophobia, and Wokeness Using various media, this seminar will examine world views of our society today and compare them to the world views Jesus addressed in his day. What will we find that makes any difference in our world personally, socially, or spiritually?	Roger Thomas
What Do I Want to Do When I Grow Up?	As you consider life after high school, explore your options now! What are your gifts and strengths? What are your vocational options for the world in which we live? What does "adulting" look like to you? Join Ka'thy Gore Chappell for real conversation and brainstorming about what your future can be? Ka'thy Gore Chappell is the Executive Director for Baptist Women in Ministry of North Carolina and has a history of relationships and ministry with young people and college students. This seminar is for HS students but open to MS students who have been approved by their group leader.	Ka'thy Gore Chappell	Both
"Brady Bunch, Kardashians, or something in between? A psychiatrist looks at some prominent families	In this seminar, we will read and discuss some Bible stories that are fascinating and strange. I hope that our time together will be both interesting and entertaining.	Walter Hiott	Both
